VOLUME CVI.--NO. 250. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 21, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

No joy or pleasure on this earth quite equals that which comes into the home when baby arrives. Who can describe the happiness of man and woman, joined in wedlock, as they look upon the fragile, delicate babe that is blood of their blood and flesh of their flesh? And who can depict the hopelessness and dejection that hover about the home where the wife is incapable of becoming a mother? Barrenness proceeds from some derangement of the distinctly feminine organs. Many of the common ailments known as "female troubles" cause it. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription overcomes barrenness by stamping out diseases of women, and by healing and curing ulceration. It tones up the system, stops drains, and restores strength. During gestation it modifies morning sickness, gives elasticity to the overstrained parts concerned, makes the hour of baby's coming short and almost painless, and gives wonderful recuperative power to the patient. By making the mother strong and cheerful, it makes the little one healthy, vigorous and good natured. Insist upon the medicine dealer giving you Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when you ask for it. Substitutes are often dangerous.

Mrs. James W. Blacker, of 639 Catherine St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicines have done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor; I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription' I have much better health, and now I have a fine healthy baby."

For 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, you can get a free copy of that celebrated doctor book, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, illustrated. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Young Woman Confesses.

Mary E. Golding, the confidential clerk and cashier of the Larkin Soap Company in New York who declared, when she was arrested, on October 13, that she stole to support her aged parents and invalid sister in Buffalo, confessed yesterday that she gave most of the money to a young man with whom she was in love, and that the story of the mother and sister was fiction. She pleaded guilty in Special Sessions, and her confession was made in court in the form of an affidavit, when she came up for sentence. In her affidavit, the girl says in part:

"I became acquainted with Alexander G. Simmons, of Brooklyn, in April, 1902. I met him on a street car. From that time we began keeping company. We had been going out together until June, 1903, when he asked me for some money. I gave him $10. After that I gave him from $10 to $25 at a time, two or three times a week, and these gifts I made from June, 1903, to the present time. October 11 was the last time I gave him money—$14. All the money I gave this man I stole from the Larkin Company. On May 4, I gave him $200. For this sum he agreed to give me a promissory note, which he never did. "The first money I appropriated to my own use was $10. After August of this year I used no part of the stolen money on myself, as my conscience hurt me. I don't know how much I have taken—it may amount to $6,000."

An examination of her room at 240 Hart street, Brooklyn, several days ago, showed a most varied and complete wardrobe, including street dresses and evening gowns, sufficient to crowd her room to its capacity. The young woman was seen in public places in company with the young man she named, and it was her expensive dresses that first directed suspicion toward her. The girl was remanded to the Tombs pending further investigation of her case.

Deserted Young Wife.

A dispatch from Cincinnati tells a story of the desertion of a young wife, which was revealed there yesterday through the resignation of J. K. Williamson, an operator in the service of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Williamson went to Cincinnati from Washington with his wife about six weeks ago, it is stated, and was given employment by the company as an "extra" man. He was an expert, but, after a short time, frequently took a day off.

Every evening about 7 o'clock his wife, a handsome woman, appeared with his lunch. Frequently when she arrived her husband would be absent, and then her eyes would fill with tears, but she never complained.

Yesterday Williamson went to the office at an unusually early hour, and without any explanation handed in his resignation, at the same time leaving a letter with one of the employees for his wife. She appeared soon afterward, and, after reading the letter, burst into tears. To one of the women operators she said that her husband had deserted her and had informed her in his letter that he had resigned his position, advising her to return to her parents in Virginia.

Mrs. Williamson said that both her relations and those of her husband are prominent in Virginia. Williamson's father, she said, is president of a large coal company. She admitted that her marriage was a schoolgirl elopement. She is scarcely more than eighteen years of age. She did not reveal the name of her family or her former residence. It was evident from her story that Williamson had left her penniless.

Arrival of Steamer Amerika.

Displacing 1,000 tons more water than any other craft afloat, the new steamer Amerika, of the Hamburg-American Line, arrived at New York yesterday on her maiden voyage across the Atlantic.

Despite her displacement of 41,000 tons, the Amerika is not the biggest steamship in the world, the Baltic, of the White Star Line, being longer, wider and of greater tonnage than the new liner. The Amerika, however, is deeper than the Baltic. The new steamer has a length of 690 feet, a breadth of 74 feet and a depth of 53 feet.

The Amerika came from Cherbourg Mole to the Sandy Hook Lightship, 3,050 miles, in 7 days 17 hours and 12 minutes. While the vessel made an hourly average speed for the voyage of only 16 468 knots, she is capable of much more speed. In the passage from Hamburg to Dover she averaged 17.26 knots an hour.

The steamer carried 1,631 persons, including the crew. Except for one storm encountered on the banks of Newfoundland the maiden trip was without weather disturbances.

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve." "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists and ——

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 401 King street.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 21, 1905.

ONE hundred years ago today Admiral Nelson lost his life at the great naval battle off Cape Trafalgar. He had no superior in his day and generation, although his flagship, the "Victory," would be as impotent in a sea battle today as Noah's ark. The admiral was fearless and an adept in the handling of sailing fleets of by-gone days, and he generally worsted England's enemies. Trafalgar Square in London, where the shaft and monument stand, was thronged with Londoners today who paid respect to the memory of perhaps the greatest naval hero England ever produced, and whose death cast a funereal pall over the entire island. The bulletins stated that the French fleet had been annihilated, but—Nelson had been killed. Each man, woman and child in the island was affected by the last four words of the dispatches from Cape Trafalgar. The victory had been dimmed by the terrible cost. The intrepid admiral had followed Napoleon to Egypt and destroyed his fleet in the Bay of Aboukir, but the Corsican was still menacing the world, and likely to invade England. It looked as though Nelson had offered up his life at an inopportune time. His remains were laid to rest in St. Paul's Cathedral, and a few years later the Duke of Wellington gave Napoleon his quietus at Waterloo. The former paid the debt of nature eventually and his remains were placed in the same crypt with those of the hero of Trafalgar.

BRIBES to two former Minnesota State officials, to the republican campaign committee in 1904 and to various employes of State bureaus by the old Northwestern Life Insurance Company were alleged in the testimony before the grand jury at St. Paul yesterday. A check for $500 is said to have been paid for the suppression of a report concerning the condition of the company. Central committees of both parties are alleged to have received contributions of $1,000 two years ago. State officials are said to have been paid $150 a day for expert accountant work on Sundays. An attempt to bribe John A. Johnson last fall, when he was democratic candidate for governor, was also exposed. Johnson was offered $5,000 toward campaign expenses to appoint a henchman of the insurance company as commissioner in the event of his election, but refused the offer. The charges made when the investigation of the New York insurance company was first begun that the corrupt methods used by one company were used by all seem likely to be substantiated. Certainly such a condition of affairs is most deplorable and people are at a loss as to whom they can trust.

TERRIFIED at the prospect of full exposure of its nefarious dealings with the wrecked Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny, Pa., through the use of State deposits, the full power of the republican State machine is being exerted to prevent the publication of the facts behind the suicide of Cashier Clark and the failure of his institution. Every influence possible it is said is being brought to bear upon Bank Examiner Cunningham to secure a secret settlement of notes of prominent republican politicians held by the bank and forestall the ruining of names and reputations. Dispatches from Pittsburg say that there were two important developments in the financial wreck yesterday. The first is that a cursory examination of the bank's accounts shows that the shortage foots up fully $1,200,000. The second development is one fraught with mighty consequences to men high in the counsels of the republican machine—it is none other than that Cashier Clark left a confession, written the night before his suicide, in the safe of the bank. In this confession Clark is alleged to have implicated men of prominence in the republican party throughout the State. It seems that the republican party in Pennsylvania, as well as in some other States, has for years been kept alive by money stolen from the public.

MR. RICKETTS, acting as Public Printer, is said to be strongly of the opinion that the federal printing plant ought to be run as carefully as a man would run a private business enterprise of his own, and that it is consequently impossible "to pay good money to men and women whose work is of no good to the government and the office." He has prepared a full report on the work of the office, embodying his views as to how economy may and should be effected, which he is shortly to submit to the President. Many will think that Mr. Ricketts has been a long time in reaching his conclusion. Everybody else has known for years of the condition of affairs at the big government printery and though he has been the foreman in the office for many years, it was not until now, when there is a chance of his losing his place, that he sees what reforms could be made.

LOCKJAW, due to vaccination, has caused the death of an eight-year-old child at Turnpike, Pa. A few days after being vaccinated he complained of being ill, and on Tuesday he lapsed into unconsciousness and remained in that state, except for brief intervals, until he died at the hospital. Such deaths are frequently reported, yet in some communities vaccination is made compulsory!

SENATOR RAYNOR is not satisfied with openly opposing the Poe amendment to the Maryland constitution, but is now issuing "challenges" to democratic speakers to discuss the matter with him on the stump. The democratic party in Maryland has declared in favor of the amendment and the same party made him a United States Senator, and why he wishes to disrupt that party is more than passing strange.

MR. ROOSEVELT continues his trip through the South, receiving ovations and being feted wherever he goes. His speeches are applauded and his every act approved. If he is not making votes he is losing none, and if he is not making friends, he is certainly making no enemies. If not a great he is certainly a wonderful man.

IN A game of poker at Huntington, W. Va., a few nights ago, a well-known stock dealer drew one card to a diamond flush and made a royal straight flush. After receiving the card he dropped dead. Physicians who examined him said that death was due to over excitement. In this section it is a bob-tail flush that kills.

THE cold wave which has been traversing the continent from the west for several days past reached this section last night and today fires and overcoats have felt comfortable. The fall so far, has been delightful and a little cool weather after the middle of October is to be expected.

That the decision of Lieutenant-General Chaffee, commanding the army of the United States, to drop the Taggart case and to "file without action" all papers relating to the officers concerned in it, does not meet with the universal approval of the army is manifest from a vigorous editoral published this morning in the Army and Navy Journal, which usually reflects quite accurately the sentiments of officers in the army and navy. The article says: "The Taggart case has subjected the army to so much criticism that it is only just that we should call attention to the fact that public opinion in the army holds that the most unpardonable of all offenses is that of leading astray the wife of a brother officer. The statute of limitations does not run against public opinion and this will punish, as with a whip of scorpions, any officer proven guilty of this detestable and cowardly act. The scandal has been done. It only remains to deal with the matter so thoroughly, so promptly, so effectively, as to be a notice to the general public and to those who are not restrained by obligations of morality or honor, that the army will not tolerate such acts as those cited by the judge in this case as a basis for the decision. That way lies honor for the army; to shirk that plain duty is to dishonor the service and every man in it."

"The greatest thing for the Italian automobile trade which has occurred this year is the success of one of the principal Italian machines in a series of races," reports Consul Dunnig, at Milar, Italy to the Department of Commerce and Labor. He doesn't urge that Americans strive to win future races, but he wants them to send over a respectable display of machines to the Milan exposition of 1906, which celebrates the opening of the Simplon tunnel. Few people, he continues, are more impressed by actual successful performance than those of southern Europe. They do not like to buy things unseen.

Fifty additional postoffice clerks have been authorized by the postoffice department for duty in the new Chicago office. The work of transferring the office from the temporary quarters to the federal building just completed will begin Saturday night and will be carried on all day Sunday. Monday morning the new office will be in operation, it is hoped. Efforts are being made now to accomdate the wagon service in the best manner. First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock will probably witness the transfer of the gigantic office.

Through U. S. Minister Leishman, at Constantinople, the State Department has received the gift of a handsome silk rug made in the form of the American flag. It is the handiwork of Armenian orphan girls in the American industrial school at Harpoot, Turkey, and according to a letter accompanying it "each of its million knots, tied by hand, represents the gratitude which all the Armenian orphans feel towards their benefactors and the American people as a whole." The flag is valued at $400 and the State Department paid $23.10 duty for its importation through the New York Customs House. It has been hung on the wall of the diplomatic anteroom of the State Department.

Consul Conant, of Windsor, Ontario, writes to the Department of Commerce and Labor about the proposed tunnel under the Detroit river between Windsor, Ontario, and Detroit, Michigan. It is to be about 7,400 long. The methods of construction are to be the most modern in tunnel building, both in excavating and construtcting the tunnel itself.

Lincoln Green, of the Southern Railway, was today's witness before the Interstate Commerce Commission in the hearing relative to excessive charges by refrigerating car lines. He said that his lines contract with the Armour Company provides that the latter's refrigerating rates must be reasonable, and he said that the present rates are lower than the carriers themselves could make them. Attorney Northrop, for the Southern, made a statement to the effect that the "selfishness of the Armour Company would induce it to maintain reasonable rates." "Then it is the selfishness of the Armour line," interjected Commissioner Prouty, "and the grace of the Southern road on which the shipper must depend?" Attorney Barry, for the Commission, in re-direct examination brought out the fact from witness Green that in 1904 the published freight rate on ice for the refrigerating of fruits was at one time reduced from $1.05 to 60cts. per ton and that the Armour Company was the only possible beneficiary of this reduction.

Fraud orders have been issued against the Kink-Ine Company, of New York, debarring them from the use of the mails. The Kink-Ine Company advertised in negro newspapers "the most wonderful discovery ever made for kinky, curly and knotty hair.

The injection of administration talent into the Ohio political campaign will take place this evening when Secretary of War Taft will discuss national and State issues on behalf of the republican ticket at Akron, Ohio. He is expected to make a vigorous defense of the President's railroad policy in particular. It is said also that he will compliment highly the administration of Governor Herrick, candidate for reelection, and that he will discuss in an interesting manner the issue of bossism raised by the democrats and independent republicans of the State.

Far in excess of the number admitted during the corresponding month of last year is the admission of Chinese to the United States during September of this year. According to a statement of the Department of Commerce and Labor, there were 283 admitted and only 11 deported. Last year in September there were 90 deported. Of these admitted 242 were residents returning to the United States. Of the 11 deported, 9 claim to be residents.

The cholera plague in the Philippines is being gotten under control by the Marine Hospital Service. A peculiarity of the disease is that it has not shown any tendency toward localization, and the persons attacked have been generally of the better classes.

News of the Day.

At Bridgeport, Ct, yesterday, the police recovered $9,700 more of the money stolen by Edward George Cunliffe, the Pittsburg express messenger, making a total of about $92,000 recovered and accounted for of the $101,000 taken.

The storm which Thursday night and yesterday swept over northern Lake Michigan, Lake Huron and Lake Erie was one of the most severe in recent years. As far as returns were obtainable last night 10 vessels have been completely wrecked and 12 to 15 others more or less severely damaged. Twelve lives are known to have been lost.

Owing largely to the banishment of his eldest son, Grand Duke Cyril, and also on account of failing health, the Grand Duke Vladimir, eldest uncle of Emperor Nicholas, has tendered his resignation as commander of the military district of St. Petersburg, and his resignation has been accepted. He will be succeeded by Lieutenant-General Gripenberg.

A collection of unique jewelry, designed by the "mad king" Ludwig II., of Bavaria, was sold at auction yesterday and realized $3,705. The collection included a bracelet designed in memory of Wagner. It consists of four miniature scenes from King Ludwig's favorite operas, set in sapphires and brilliants. It brought $475. A necklet, brooch and bracelet were sold for $1,000.

A man, whose name is supposed to be J. C. Baird, of Pittsburg, Pa., was found beaten to death by the roadside, near Salisbury, N. C., early yesterday morning, and the coroner's jury has returned a verdict that he came to his death at the hands of unknown parties. The body of the man, who appeared to be forty years of age, was identified by articles in his pockets. The man had been robbed, and his face beaten into a jelly, but there is no clew to the murderer. A club covered with blood was found near the body. The pockets had been cut open and rifled of valuables

Death of Mrs. Wilmer.

The venerable widow of Right Rev. Richard Hooker Wilmer, bishop of Alabama, for 36 years, died in Washington, yesterday at the residence of her son, Dr. William Holland Wilmer.

Mrs. Wilmer was born Margaret Brown in Nelson county, Virginia, in 1821. She was the daughter of Gen. Alexander Brown who served in the war of 1812, and a niece of William Cabell Rives, the Virginia statesman and diplomat. Bishop Wilmer and Mrs. Wilmer were married in 1840 in Nelson county, the year he was ordained. Since the death of the Bishop, five years ago, she had lived in Washington with her son, a distinguished physician. Mrs. Wilmer will be buried by the side of her husband in the cemetery at Mobile, Ala. Dr. Wilmer left with the body for that city today. Mrs. Wilmer leaves three children—Dr. W. H. Wilmer, of Washington; Minnie, wife of Col. Harvey A. Jones, of Montgomery, Ala., and Mr. A. B. Wilmer, a merchant of Mobile.

Woman Murdered.

Mrs. Clara McCluskey was shot dead at the rear of her saloon, in Chicago, yesterday morning by her former friend, Mrs. May Buckley. Jealously over Albert Tyrman, an electrician, led to the crime. Mrs. Buckley last night, after being questioned for several hours by the police, confessed. She said: "I shot Mrs. McCluskey. I went to her saloon Thursday night and ordered two drinks. I had a conversation with Mrs. McCluskey, but in a little while she told me to leave the place. I went away, and in a little while after midnight I called her up on the telephone to see if she was there. Later I called her up again, and told her she had wronged me and I would get even with her. Then I went down to her place and rapped on the back door, just as though I was coming for some beer. I knew she would answer the rapping, and then I would get her. She came to the door, and I grabbed her by the throat and fired a shot into her. Then I ran and threw the revolver into a yard as I passed up the alley."

Virginia News.

The King's Daughters of Virginia, at their annual convention at Lynchburg, decided to ask the Virginia Legislature to appropriate $20,000 for the care of the feeble-minded children of the State.

W. R. Mallery, head of the firm of W. R. Mallory & Son, dealers in leaf tobacco, died in Richmond yesterday after a short illness, leaving a widow and three children. He was a native of Petersburg, where he was born 42 years ago.

John Ray, member of the firm of Frank & Ray, funeral directors, of Winchester, dropped dead of heart disease yesterday at his establishment, aged about sixty-five years. He was a Confederate veteran and member of the Masonic fraternity

The funeral of Mr. John R. Higgins, son of Mr. John M. Higgins, took place from St. Peter's Cathedral, Richmond, yesterday morning. Among the priests who attended the Bishop during the services are: Very Rev. J. J. Bowler and Rev. Dr. Magri, of the Cathedral; Rev. Henry J. Cutler, of Alexandria and Rev. E. M. Tearney, of Falls Church.

A quiet but impressive ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Maffett, 2234 18th street, northwest Washington, on Wednesday, October 18th at 2:30 p. m., when Miss May Augusta, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gaines, became the bride of Mr. G. G. Galleher, both of Hickory Grove, Prince William county. The ceremony was performed by Elder J. N. Badger, of Manassas, in the presence of a few relatives and close friends of the contracting parties.

RICHARDS' TRIAL.

Noah Wilson and J. M. Connor were recalled to the witness stand in the Floyd County Court yesterday morning in the case of John Richards, on trial for the murder of Maurice Francis. Wilson lived within half a mile of the Richards home and knew John Richards well. He had seen John Richards wearing a false mustache last summer before the killing. Connor had measured the tracks leading from the spot where Francis was assassinated. They led in the direction of the Richards home.

W. L. Reed stated that he followed the tracks through a cornfield and a buckwheat field, the fields belonging to William Ferris, a witness who testified that he had seen a man disguised passing through these fields on the day of the tragedy.

Oscar Wickham testified to following the tracks 75 yards. Evidence was then introduced to show that John Richards had been seen on the second Sunday in July at the scene of the tragedy, and that on that Sunday Francis was paying a visit to Miss Link. It was the belief that this testimony was introduced to show that Richards had possibly made another attempt to waylay Francis on the occasion of this visit.

Commonwealth's Attorney Simonds testified as to how the shot and slugs taken from Francis' body came into his possession, with the dead man's clothing and other articles offered in evidence and identified.

Jasper Light, the constable sent to arrest John Richards, stated that he had gone to the Richards home to make the arrest on the day following the murder, but Richards was not there. He later saw two men in a thicket near the Richards home, and Light, with other officers, crawled up to the thicket and identified the men as John Richards and his father. The men escaped to a swamp, and the tracks made by one of the men were the same size as the tracks leading from the spot where Francis was killed.

A letter from Francis to Miss Link on Thursday before the Saturday on which he was killed was admitted as evidence. Edward Thompson saw Richards on Thursday preceding the tragedy past the postoffice where Miss Link was assistant postmistress, and hand her a letter.

Robert E. Myers stated that on the second Sunday in July Francis was visiting Miss Link, and that he saw Richards that day going in the direction of where Francis met his death.

Mrs. I. N. Clingenpeel testified that she saw John Richards wearing two different overcoats last summer. One was extra quality, while the other was homemade and faded by exposure.

When the forty-ninth witness for the Commonwealth had completed his testimony yesterday evening the State rested its case and court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, when the defense put on witnesses.

Confederate Navy's Record.

Charles M. Stewart, superintendent of the naval library and naval war records, in his annual report says volumes 20 and 21 of the records of the union and Confederate navies in the civil war, dealing with the operations of the west gulf blockading squadron, under Admiral Farragut, from March 15, 1863, to near the end of 1864, are nearing completion. The report also says:

"The operations of the Confederate navy are completely presented in naval records for the first time in history. The records, which include the construction, equipment and performances of ironclds, cruisers, torpedoes and torpedo boats, stand as a monument to the energy, skill and daring of Confederate officers and sailors.

"The naval warfare carried on in inland waters, bays, inlets and rivers is comparatively new in naval history, and in its relations to shore operations by landing parties or in co-operation with army forces valuable data are presented concerning the strategy and tactics of inland blockade and the military control of water courses.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Haas-Peckham Case.

New York, Oct. 21.—Hugh Gordon Miller, counsel for Moses Haas, and Edward Peckham, cotton brokers, of this city, who are wanted for trial in Washington, on charges in connection with the cotton leak, made a unique plea today before United States Commissioner Ridgeway in an endeavor to prevent their extradition to the Capital. Mr. Miller referred to many decisions of the United States Supreme Court, including the Aaron Burr case, to show that the federal courts were bound by the State laws as to questions of extradition. The federal court of Washington, D. C., he said was an exception. It was in fact a law unto itself. There was no appeal from the decision of that court, not even to the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Miller then went on to say that there was no such office under the federal law as that of Assistant Statistician of the Bureau of Agriculture. Homes, he said, was simply a clerk. As such clerk he had the right to give friends any information he might have. There was no statute of the federal law making it a crime to furnish such information. He simply gave "tips," to his friends, Haas and Peckham, by letter or telegrams, advising them to buy or sell cotton. The government was not defrauded in any way. If the government owned cotton lands or was dealing in cotton, there might be reason for the claim of fraud, but the fact was that this information was given by Holmes to his friends in order to beat the "cotton gamblers in Wall street at their own game." Whether these friends lost or won through means of this information the government suffered in no way whatever. Clarence E. E. Houghton, Assistant United States District Attorney Beach, of Washington, replied for the government. Commissioner Ridgeway reserved decision, and both sides submitted briefs.

Celebration of Nelson Day.

London, Oct. 21.—The celebration of Nelson Day, commemorating the centenary of the great Admiral's death, began at 8 o'clock this morning, with the hoisting of flags on the Nelson column in Trafalgar Square. Nelson's famous signal, "England expects every man to do his duty," was set. Nelson's column was elaborately decorated with flowers and wreaths, steeple-jacks having been engaged for some time in entwining gigantic wreaths about the column from top to base. The naval boys' brigade marched to the column today escorted by an immense crowd and laid a wreath at the base of the column. Despite the slight rain which fell, Trafalgar Square early in the morning, was crowded with people waiting for the ceremony to begin at 2 o'clock. This celebration was attended by the Lord Mayor and many other prominent men. During the course of the afternoon celebrations were held in Albert Hall, Queen's Hall and Agricultural Hall. The days' ceremonies will conclude tonight with a banquet in the Criterion restaurant. Tomorrow a memorial ceremony will be held in St. Paul's Cathedral, which will be attended by members of the various embassies. Last night a banquet was held in Fishmongers' Hall. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, was present and made a speech. Telegrams from Admiral Dewey, Admiral Togo and others were read.

Kissed Hundred Times a Day.

Jersey City, Oct. 21.—Because she had been kissed too often, Mary Chasinsky, a maid in the employ of Mrs. Meisch, of Secaucus, N. J., summoned Wadiso Baroughsky, a former employee in the Meisch family, before Justice Manning yesterday charging him with assault and battery. The girl said the man had been paying attention to her for about a year. After he was discharged about a week ago he often met her on the roads and kissed her. "Why he would kiss me as often as a hundred times a day and his rough beard made by lips sore," she said. "My dinners were often delayed and my cooking would be spoiled by him annoying me while I was in the kitchen." Lawyer Fred. Stohr, representing Baroughsky, said he thought his client was insanely in love with the girl, and could not see any harm in kissing her. He obtained a postponement of the case until Monday.

Set Fire to His Home.

Spring Valley, Ills., Oct. 21—Rendered insane by liquor, John Sednick, a farmer, returned home last night and beat his wife into insensibility. He then overturned the kitchen stove and set fire to the house. The place was soon in flames and burned to the ground. Neighbors dragged the woman and her infant child out of the burning building with the clothing afire. The baby was fatally burned and the two other children were seriously injured before they could be rescued. Mrs. Sednick was taken to a hospital and may die. Sednick escaped with a police possee in pursuit.

Grief of 27 Years Kills.

Pittsburg, Oct. 21.—Grieving over the deaths of his son and daughter, which occurred nearly 27 years ago, J. H. Schindehutte, aged 60 years, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart in Minersville Cemetery. The body was discovered early yesterday morning lying between the graves of his dead children. Schindehutte, whose home was at Suterville, Pa., had for some time been working as a shoemaker in this city. At the time his children were buried, years ago, he announced he would kill himself and follow them and had since often repeated the threat.

Train Ditched.

Iola, Kansas, Oct. 21,—Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 304, jumped the track at Redfield, Kansas, half way between Iola and Fort Scott. Five coaches are in the ditch. Doctors were sent from here and Fort Scott. Thirty five are said to be injured, two of whom probably will die.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The President in Florida.

Jessup, Ga. Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt's train reached Jessup at 7:10 this morning. The trip was made without incident.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt arose this morning at about eight o'clock to look out upon the pines and swamps of the Georgia-Florida line just north of the boundary at Folkston, where the engine paused for a drink of water. The President left his car for a few minutes to shake hands with the little knot of people that was lined up at the station. Men, women and children, black and white, filed by and received a word of greeting.

On the way south from Atlanta, far into the night, great crowds were gathered at every cross-roads station whether the President's train was scheduled to stop or not. At one small place where the engine coaled, about midnight, there were about two hundred gathered around the depot.

When the special reached Jacksonville, the Governor of Florida, the mayor of the city and the citizens' committee of 100 escorted the President from the train. An artillery salute of twenty-one guns and a great chorus of factory whistles and bells greeted the President as he left the train. At noon the President made an address to one of the largest crowds ever gathered in the city, after a review of the military and civic bodies. At 2 o'clock the President and party took luncheon with the members of the Board of Trade.

Hyde to Take the Stand.

New York, Oct. 21.—The chief figure in the legislative insurance investigating committee, when the sessions are resumed next week, will be James Hazen Hyde, former Vice President of the Equitable Life. It was the fight between Hyde and Alexander, of the Equitable, that was the cause of all the disclosures in the life insurance companies. Mr. Hughes will ask Mr. Hyde many questions regarding the famous "Union Pacific preferred stock syndicate," as well as other syndicates in which Mr. Hyde, as a director of the Equitable, participated.

Hyde received a salary of $100,000 a year as Vice President of the Equitable, and Mr. Hughes will doubtless ask him what he did for the company to earn it. President McCurdy, of the Mutual Life, received $150,000 for running the presidential office of that company. Mr. Hughes asked him what made his services so valuable to the company that he received such a magnificent salary. Mr. McCurdy spoke of the forty years service with the company and the cumulative effect of his work as an answer to Mr. Hughes. Mr. Hyde was only a few years with the Equitable, and the legislative committee is wondering what his answer will be.

Football.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 21.—Yale will tackle Pennsylvania State at Yale Field this afternoon with the weather ideal for a hard game. Tripp who has been out of the game with an injury, The resumed his position, at right guard. Pennsylvania State men arrived in town last night and coach "Billy" Golded, who was with them, states that they had a line averaging 180, and some good backstops against the Yale team, and he believed they would make the blue work some to roll up any kind of a score.

Sawed His Way to Liberty.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 21.—Joseph Gardham, 56 years old, a machinist, and a native of England, on October 14, last, sawed his way through iron bars to liberty at the River Crest sanitarium, Astoria, L. I. Gardham came to Jersey City, and secured employment at a machine shop on Hudson street. He was taken back to the sanitarium by Supervisor J. J. Higgins. Gardham claims to have invented a machine which will weigh the atmosphere.

British Officers Released.

Liverpool, Eng. Oct. 21.—A dispatch to the Echo from Tangier states that Captain Crowther and Lieutenant Hatton, the British officers captured by the bandits early in the week, have been released. The bandits demanded the release of two of their companions, who had been taken prisoners. These men were set free in accordance with the bandits' demand, and the two British officers accordingly were liberated.

More Disasters.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21.—There is a report here that a steamer of the Gilchrist Line has gone down with all hands off Long Point, Lake Erie.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 21.—The wooden steamer Siberia, of the Gilchrist fleet, bound here, went down early this morning off Long Point, Lake Erie. Advices to the owners say the crew was rescued.

Seven Cents a Day.

Seven cents a day is all that A. J. Seaman, a professional tax-title buyer, with residences in Denver and Omaha, spends for food and drink, according to his own statement.

He is thought to be worth at least $100,000, and is known to have presented a certified check for $50,000 on one occasion.

Despite his fortune he lives in the most frugal manner, renting a small room far out in the suburbs, for which he pays almost nothing. "I have reduced the cost of living to a science," says Seaman. "Seven cents a day is my limit, and what this amount buys keeps me in excellent health. This allows 2 cents each for breakfast and supper, and 3 cents for a hearty meal in the middle of the day. For breakfast I have coffee and crackers; for dinner a bowl of soup with bread and at supper, bread, butter and tea. I clothe myself for $7 a year, and always have two complete outfits." Seaman does not use the street cars and walks to his suburban lodgings; also for short distances through the country, but patronizes the railroads for long journeys. His sole business is buying the titles of property sold for taxes and disposing of them at higher prices.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." E. S. Guilty of Larceny.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Col. Henry W. Comstock, the aged broker and financier, who obtained notoriety some time ago by reason of his assertion that he was robbed of thousands of dollars' worth of securities on the Fall River boat, was found guilty by a jury in the Superior criminal court yesterday on an indictment accusing him of larceny. He was charged with stealing two $1,000 bonds belonging to Mrs. Cora Frothingham, of Atlantic. He had the custody of her securities, she having intrusted him with them for the purpose of making investments for her. Comstock claimed he was acting as a broker for Mrs. Frothingham, whose holdings were wiped out.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Alonzo J. Whiteman, of Dansville, N. Y., known as the "King of the Forgers," was convicted by a jury in the Supreme Court this morning of grand larceny, first degree, in passing a forged check for $750 on the Fidelity Trust Bank. Whiteman once ran as a candidate for mayor of Duluth, Minn. He has served several sentences for forgery in other States. In two former trials here the juries disagreed.

Lizard in Stomach Three Months.

New York, Oct. 21.—Campbell, 5-year old son of John Walker, of Deer Park, L. I., is dead from convulsions, and an autopsy has brought to light the startling fact that a lizard had lived in the boy's stomach three months, and in the end caused his death. Three months ago the boy, in drinking a glass of water, swallowed what he told his parents was a "bug." Nothing was thought of the matter at the time, as the boy suffered no ill-effects. Several days ago he was taken violently ill, and then he was seized with convulsions that caused his death. The lizard removed from the stomach was 3½ inches in length. It is believed it was scarcely larger than a beetle when the boy swallowed it.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 21—The market was broader and stronger today than it has been since the upward movement started and commission houses are doing a larger business than probably at any previous time this year. Buying orders came from various sources and the only supply of stock in sight was that resulting from realizing sales to take accumulated profits. London was not a factor. Bear traders and operators are sellers on every advance until the time started two days ago when easier money caused them to abandon their position.

She Used a Hat Pin.

Detective H. K Fickes, while on the lookout for a woman from the upper end of York county, Pa., last night, for whom he had a warrant, mistook another woman on the street for his quarry. She was walking on west King street, and he was sure that she was the woman he wanted. Noticing her passing along hurriedly, the detective darted across the street and taking her by the arm told her to come along with him. Instead of yielding, she quietly reached up, drew a pin from her hat and stabbed the detective several times in the hand. Fickes held on to his prisoner until he got her into the glare of the light, only to find that he was mistaken. He offered profuse apologies, while the woman continued to jab him with the hat pin.

Yesterday evening he delivered a nonpartisan address in the Opera House and was followed by Charles Lee Moore, United States attorney for the Western district of Virginia. The Secretary's visit yesterday was due to a promise made to some friends two weeks ago that he would speak at Charlottesville.

Attempted Suicide.

Frank H. Gibson, a prisoner in the U. S. marshal's office, in Baltimore, and his alleged wife swallowed a quantity of red precipitate of mercury in an anteroom yesterday and were promptly relieved at the City Hospital. Gibson was indicted by the United States grand jury on the charge of using the mails to defraud. He was taken from jail to the marshal's office in the morning so that he would be on hand if he desired to plead to the charge, and his wife was allowed to keep him company during the day in the anteroom. Gibson was indicted under the aliases of Edwin F. Gray and Edwin F. Brown. He was arrested in Philadelphia several months ago and has been in jail in Baltimore since. He is charged with operating at Laurel, Md., under the name of Edwin F. Gray, a banker. It is alleged that he obtained valuable sets of books from publishers and sold them to second-hand dealers. He appears to be about 50 years old and his wife 10 or 15 years younger. Gibson, who claims to have been a newspaper editor and magazine writer, gave his former address as 4118 Powelton avenue, Philadelphia, although, according to the postal authorities, he is also credited with residences at various times in Laurel, Richmond, Front Royal, Va., Snow Hill, Md., Alexandria, Va., and other places. Mrs. Frank H. Gibson is said to be living with her mother, at Herndon, Fairfax county. She has, it is alleged, been trying for several months to locate her husband. She came to this city recently seeking the assistance of the police in the effort to find Gibson. She stated that he had deserted her and his two little children, leaving them dependent upon her mother for support. It was alleged that Gibson was running a matrimonial bureau and was traveling with another woman as his wife. Mrs. Gibson said she would institute divorce proceedings, and declared her intention to aid in her husband's prosecution, if she could ever ascertain his whereabouts. Before deserting his wife Gibson stayed in Alexandria a few weeks. He claimed to be a newspaper man, and said he had written sacred songs. He left, it is charged, owing many board bills.

Judge Surprised Jurors.

The remaining cases against Arthur Wall and Percy T. Pumphrey, the former indicted for violating the gaming laws by selling books on foreign horseraces at the Kennilworth, Md., poolroom, Bladensburg district, and the latter charged, on a single count, with permitting the selling of books on his premises, came up yesterday and were continued until the next term of court, in April. Wall's bond was renewed. When the cases had been disposed of Judge George C. Merrick, who sat during the two-days trial of the first case against the accused, on which the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, surprised the jurors, attorneys and others present by the following statement: "I want to say to the defendant that the jury has brought in a verdict of 'not guilty,' but that does not neccessarily mean that the party accused did not commit the offense charged against him. It may be that he had the benefit of doubt; it may be, as probably was the case, that the jury did not think the offense was committed. I want to say that the court was amazed at the verdict of the jury, in view of the testimony. I cannot see how it was possible for them to reach that conclusion; but that is a matter with them. I will say that, having heard all the testimony Thursday, I will warn this defendant that he had better be cautious, for as far as the power of this court can reach when it is legitimately extended, and every effort that this court can use within the bounds of law and right, will be exercised to break up this business that, upon the testimony of sworn witnesses Thursday, has been carried on in Prince George's county. When you give bond for your appearance in court you will be discharged."

Cold Wave.

A cold wave struck this city and vicinity late yesterday evening. The rainy weather which had prevailed during the day was followed by high northwest winds and a sudden drop in the temperature. The heavens became clear during the night and the weather today has been fair and cool, so much so that fires were found to be comfortable.

Anniversary of Disaster.

Twenty-seven years ago tomorrow night the steamer Express foundered in a storm in Chesapeake bay, near the mouth of the Potomac. The ill-fated steamer was many years ago a towboat at Norfolk, but about the close of the war she was taken to Baltimore and lengthened and placed on the route between Washington, Alexandria, river landings and Baltimore. She was a side-wheel boat with a sliding beam. She left Baltimore on Tuesday evening October 22 and was caught in a severe storm in the bay. The wind blew a gale, demolished the steamer's upper works and rendered her unmanageable. She afterwards sank. A number of people were drowned.

More Corruption.

The zone of the investigation by the Hennepin grand jury of the old officers of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company, of Minneapolis, may be transferred from Minneapolis to St. Paul. Payments of money have come to light, it is said, for corrupt purposes, made in St. Paul, which may necessitate action by the local courts in order to secure a conviction.

Testimony already placed before the grand jury involves two former State officials, the alleged payment is a room at the Ryan Hotel of a $5,000 check for the suppression of a report exposing the condition of the company, and a voluntary contribution of $1,000 each to the two democratic and republican State central committees. Another State official is credited with receiving $300, in installments of $150 each, for Sunday work done in a clerical capacity. He figured as an expert accountant.

As to the campaign contributions, they are said to be vouched for in a confession made by one of the old officers, but its receipt is denied in the case of the democrats on the authority of Labor Commissioner Williams who says he was the one to whom the tender was practically made.

"There was a string to the donation, however, and Gov. Johnson and F. G. Winston turned it down when I told them of it," said Mr. Williams yesterday. "We certainly needed the money, but Gov. Johnson, in case of his election, would not agree to name the man for insurance commissioner that the old officers wanted. That was the reason that we did not get the check. I knew that the other side did."

The Northwestern Life Insurance Company, as reorganized, is not concerned in this investigation.

Threatened with Dynamite.

Daniel B. Wesson, a wealthy revolver manufacturer of Springfield, Mass., has received letters demanding money under threat to blow up his $1,000,000 mansion with a dynamite bomb. He refused to discuss the letters and was angry that the story had got out. Mr. Wesson's magnificent home, on Maple street, has been under guard of officers in citizens' clothing for several nights. The first letter demanding money, it is said, was received by the pistol maker about a month ago. It was said to have been postmarked in or near New York city. No attention was paid to it, and about a week later another missive, written in the same hand, reached Mr. Wesson, this time demanding a larger sum and renewing the threat to blow up his mansion.

Frightful Suffering Relieved

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugstore, guaranteed.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

'Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

(Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)
